When school starts, that is a good time to get your children library cards. The American Library Association designates September as Library Sign up month. This is a wonderful, free gift you can give your children which will get them on the right track for learning. Just bring in your children and your current driver's license and apply. It takes only a few minutes of your time to register and will give your children hours of enjoyment. Be sure and check out the events in the calendar designed just for children.
